

The World is a Lie...

28 1 2

Chapter 1 by Jackson Xiong

Once upon a time there was a boy in a classroom, but there was no classroom and it wasn't a boy. It wasn't even a boy! It was an animal. This animal was a fish. This fish was a whale. This whale gave birth to a calf. This calf became a cow! What?! This cow became a bull. This bull changed into a bowl. This bowl wasn't a bowl. It was cereal. This cereal became wheat. This wheat was a seed. This seed was in the ground. But all of this was a lie.

Chapter 2 by Aaron Hartmann

I slowly open my eyes, "What kind of dream did I have?" I mumble to myself. I roll over and check the time, "8:00! I'm late!" I rush to get my clothes on. I trip while going down the stairs. I rub the pain away.

I skip breakfast and grab my backpack and run outside. The bus wasn't here, of course it wasn't here, I am almost half an hour late. I get on my bike and ride to school as fast as I can. I run through the halls and get into my 1st hour class. That is when I realized, I wasn't wearing pants. (Thank goodness I was wearing underwear though)
